

Lecture No. 1

Summary:

The speaker shares their personal journey from being a shy, underconfident girl to becoming a successful content creator. They overcame personal challenges, pursued various interests, and took calculated risks to achieve their dreams. The speaker's three lessons for success are: believe in yourself, be curious and learn as much as possible, and follow your heart while using your head.

Keywords: journey, personal challenges, content creation, believe in yourself, curiosity, learning, calculated risks

MCQ:

1. What is the speaker's primary message?

- a) Believe in yourself and dream big
- b) Listen to others and follow their advice
- c) Stick to one career path and never take risks
- d) Limit your ambitions and play it safe

Answer: a) Believe in yourself and dream big

2. What did the speaker do to overcome their underconfidence?

- a) Quit their job and traveled the world
- b) Took part in debate, dance, and drawing competitions
- c) Stuck to their comfort zone and never tried anything new
- d) Let others make decisions for them

Answer: b) Took part in debate, dance, and drawing competitions

Short Questions:

1. What were the speaker's three lessons for success?

Answer: The speaker's three lessons for success were: believe in yourself, be curious and learn as much as possible, and follow your heart while using your head.

2. What did the speaker do to find their "something else" after feeling unsatisfied with their job?

Answer: The speaker pursued multiple interests such as interior design, wedding planning, and teaching dance to children.

3. What was the turning point in the speaker's life that led them to pursue content creation as a career?

Answer: The speaker read a book called "The Power of Subconscious Mind" which completely shifted their mindset and led them to start their content creation journey.